WHEEL NOTES.

Lines About Devotees Of The Wheel, At Home And Elsewhere.

Verdi is trying to eclipse Cato's feat of learning Greek at eighty by riding a bicycle at eighty-two.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dewhurst arrived home yesterday from a wedding trip to England. Dewhurst is well known in cycling circles in Kentucky.

George Kent Varden is the proud owner of a '97 model "Delker" wheel—olive green in color. It is a beauty, and was manufactured at Owensboro, Ky.

The Cynthiana Democrat says: "Harry Bailey came in from the country on his bicycle, Monday, and had his ears badly bitten. They were swollen to twice the normal size but he couldn't hear any better."

If the success of the Chicago Cycle Show sub-zero weather be a fair indication, that "tired" feeling will be the most popular sensation of the spring and summer of 1897, and to tell a man that he "has wheels" will constitute the neatest of compliments.

A foolhardy feat has been performed by a young cyclist at Atlanta, Ga. He rode a bicycle down an inclined board platform two feet wide from the top of a high building into the waters of the adjacent lake. Four men held the machine while he mounted, and at the word "go," he was sent off, and in an instant shot into the water, going over the handlebars of his machine. Both rider and bicycle were fished out in good condition.

Chris Lyon, of Lincoln, has refused $1 per bushel for 3,500 bushels of wheat which he has on hand.

Vick's Floral Guide, 1897.

For nearly half a century this Catalogue of Flower and Vegetable Seeds, Plants, Bulbs, Roses, Grains, Potatoes, etc., has come as regularly as spring time. Here it is again to remind us that it's time to think about our gardens. This issue contains half a dozen full page half-tone illustrations of Roses, Asters, Gold Flowers, Carnations and Tomatoes.

It seems full of the necessary information for either amateur or professional. Send 15 cents to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., for a packet of either Vick's Branching Aster, New Japan Morning Glory, or extra choice Fanny and a copy of Vick's Floral Guide. If you state where you saw this notice you will receive a package of flower seeds free.

A New Portrait.

PARIS, KY., January 12, 1897.

I AM introducing a new portrait made by a new process. It is finer in finish than a large photograph made from life, which could not be produced for less than ten dollars; is beautifully colored in water colors and will never fade. I propose to make just fifty of these pictures, and to introduce them will make the following offer until Feb. 15th 1897:

I will make half dozen of my best cabinets and one (size 16x20 inches) above described portraits, with mat, complete, for $6. You are not compelled to buy frame from me, but I can sell you frames cheaper than anybody, quality considered. Call and see these portraits. Respectfully,

L. GRINNAN,

Photographer.
